Hi Joanne,

I'm glad that you thought it was helpful and that there were a lot of people on the webinar.

Both of those dates work for me and I've got them on my calendar.
Thanks!

Nancy

Thank you as always for your fabulous webinar!! Lots a people today and some really great questions, we already have a good group for Thursday too, so I think this Monsanto exemption is getting a lot of attention.

We're thinking the next ones we'd like to do are:

Wednesday, November 30th at 130 central
And
Friday, December 2nd at 9am central

How will those two dates work for you?

Joanne,

The Tuesday after Thanksgiving is not good for me because I have an appointment in the middle of the day. But my schedule is wide open on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday that week, so we could do the webinar on one of those days if any work for you.

Nancy

How is the Tuesday after Thanksgiving looking for you? That would be the 29th...we think we're going to need to do another then as we're hearing that people are still doing fall fert right now but want to be a part of the webinar(s).

Hi Joanne,

Here is an updated version of the Label Webinar, with the information about Monsanto containers included. I am also attaching two reference documents that you may want to send to the webinar participants. Talk with you tomorrow morning!

Nancy

Perfect!!! I will set up the go to right now and send it along. Also, an updated version by mid-day on the 14th works great! Speak to you on the 15th.

Thanks again!

Hi Joanne,

Both of those dates/times work for me and I've put them on my calendar.

Yes, the label webinars were much shorter. I seem to remember them being about a half hour, so we're in the same ball park.

I will take another look at that presentation and will probably change it a bit. At the very least, I know that the Label Review Manual is not open for comment anymore so I need to change that. I will send you an updated version no later than mid-afternoon on Monday, November 14. Does that work for you all?

RE: Label

Hi Nancy,

In talking to Kent he was actually realizing it's not a bad thing that you're not available next week - it gives us more time to get notice out to people! :) At any rate, he was wondering if Tuesday, Nov 15th at 8:30 a.m. cst and Thursday, November 17th at 130 pm cst would work for you? If I recall correctly they only last about 20 min.

Hi Joanne,

Sorry, but next week isn't good for me. I am off on Monday (compressed day off), Thursday (annual leave) and Friday (federal holiday) and I already have a lot of meetings scheduled on Wednesday.

Sorry about that!

Nancy,

Any chance you're available for a Labeling Webinar on Wednesday, November 9th OR Thursday, November 10th? It's supposed to snow this week in the Dakotas so we're hoping to capitalize on that next week if you're available.

Thank you!
